STEP ONE – Notify Your Health Plan

The first thing you need to do is file a complaint with your health plan. By California law, complaints must be resolved within 30 days. Follow the steps below to file a complaint and appeal with your health plan:

- Call the member/customer service phone number for your health plan.
- State clearly that you want to file a formal complaint and then explain the problem.
- You can also file your complaint by letter, email, or online through your health plan’s website (see below).
- If you disagree with your health plan’s decision, you have the right to file an appeal.

Below are links to the complaint forms of California’s top health plans:

- Anthem Blue Cross of California/Blue Shield of California
- Assurant Health
- Chinese Community Health
- Health Net
- Kaiser Permanente
- L.A. Care Health Plan
- Molina Healthcare
- Sharp Health Plan
- Valley Health Plan
- Western Health Advantage

STEP TWO – File a Complaint

You have the right to file a complaint with the California Department of Managed Health Care (DMHC) and the California Department of Insurance (DOI) if you have a problem getting the services you need, including quality and affordable health care coverage. To file a complaint you must first complete your health plan’s appeal process.

Depending on your coverage, you may need to file your complaint with the DMHC, the DOI or both. Call the DOI to determine which agency handles your health plan: (800) 927-4357.

- File a complaint with the DMHC and submit an Independent Medical Review application here or call the DMHC help line: (888) 466-2219.
- File a complaint with the Department of Insurance here.
CHOOSING A SMART CALIFORNIA HEALTH PLAN

Consider
- What ongoing care do I need – is it covered?
- What are my out-of-pocket costs under the plan?
  - Deductible
  - Copayment
  - Coinsurance
- What is the annual out-of-pocket maximum?

BE AWARE
These are not the only questions you should ask – use this checklist to evaluate and compare important plan benefits and restrictions.

Know Your Rights

My Patient Rights | Know Your Rights

State and federal law protects your rights. When you sign up for a health plan and/or if you have problems accessing care through your health plan, it is important to know your rights.

Below are some basic health care rights. To find out more about the specific rights in your state, and how you can file a complaint, visit the state resource page.

Health Plan Coverage Information
You have a right to understand what your health plan covers and what it does not. Contact your health plan's member services department to get information about what your plan includes.

Access to Medical Records
You have a right to see and review all of your health care records.

Privacy
Under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPPA) you have the right to keep your health care information and records private.

Health Plan Complaints
You have a right to know how your health plan handles complaints and grievances. Contact your health plan's member services department to get information about filing a complaint about your health coverage.

If your issue is not resolved through your health plan's complaint process, you can file a complaint through your state agency that handles health plans.

Timely Complaint Resolution
State and federal laws require health plans to follow certain timelines when processing and responding to health care complaints. Check your health plan coverage information and/or contact your state regulatory agency to learn about these timelines.
Health Plan Barriers

Health plans create barriers that can prevent access to quality, affordable health care. In some cases, this may be illegal. At My Patient Rights, we help you understand the issues you may have had with your health plan and guide you in resolving these issues so you can get the health care you deserve.

Have you experienced any of these barriers?

- Adverse Tiering
- Coinsurance
- High Deductible Plan
- Nonmedical Switching
- Out-of-Network Charges
- Prior Authorization
- Step Therapy

If you have experienced any of these obstacles to your healthcare, share your story, find out about your rights and how to get your denial reversed in your state.
What is mypatientrights.org?

My Patient Rights is a website inspired by actual patients who have experienced denials, delays, high out-of-pocket costs, out-of-network charges and other barriers to quality, affordable health care from their health plans.

These patients want to make it easier for you to understand how to resolve issues with your health plan, reach the applicable government agencies, file a complaint and get the health care you deserve.

If your health plan has denied any health care services or prescriptions – or if you have experienced any other barriers with your health plan that leave you dissatisfied, My Patient Rights can help you resolve these problems.
